

A manufacturer's representative company serving the OEM, service provider, and premise marketplace.

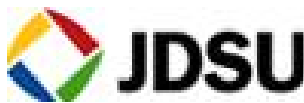

Arden Photonics specializes in instrumentation for the measurement of a wide range of properties of lasers, LEDs, optical fibers, and optical components. These include Multimode Launch Condition control and measurement, optical fiber end face angle measurement and launch boxes.

www.ardenphotonics.com

Experior Laboratories provides compliance and performance validation test services for electrical and fiber optic based devices and components. In addition they provide NIST traceable optical device calibration services

www.experiorlabs.com

JDSU designs, develops and manufactures an extensive selection of fiber optic based test tools. We represent their lines of Fiber Inspection and Cleaning systems (formerly Westover Scientific); Fiber Field Test equipment; Lab and Manufacturing Test for IL, RL and multi-channel systems.

www.westoverfiber.com www.jdsu.com

Luminos Industries manufactures Optical Switches, Positioning and Alignment products, Fiber Handling Tools and associated accessories.

www.luminosindustries.com

Mohawk Ltd. is uniquely positioned to provide complete one-source solutions for Repair/refurbishment/calibration of virtually thousands of pieces of equipment to manufacturer's specifications, to like new condition.

www.mohawkLtd.com

Multilink Broadband is an engineering and product development based manufacturer of telecommunications network components. Core products include raceway, fiber management, splice closures and fiber enclosures.

www.multilinkone.com

Nanometer Technologies manufactures a complete line of fiber optic polishing systems for single fiber, array and military fiber optic connectors as well as the AFiS line of automated connector inspection products.

www.nanometer.com

Norland Products manufactures non-contact Interferometric inspection systems for single fiber, array and military connectors. In addition, Norland manufactures UV splice systems and ruggedized splice enclosures.

www.norlandprod.com

Saint-Gobain Abrasives manufacture lapping and polishing films, powders, slurries and pads for use in fiber optic connector manufacture and support product processing.

www.sgabrasives.com

TII Network Technologies (formerly Frederick Fiber Optics) manufactures a wide variety of high-performance, fiber optic cable assemblies and accessories to facilitate cost-effective interconnection of optical networks.

www.tiinetnetworktechnologies.com